WHAT'S YOUR DREAM?

Whether you have it all figured out or are looking for a school that makes it easy to explore different career paths, you can dream bigger at Curry.

Founded in 1879 to help students discover their unique abilities, talents, and interests; achieve excellence; and take their place in the world, Curry College turns dreams into plans.

BE A PART OF SOMETHING.

The Curry class Caitlyn attended while visiting campus let her know she had found her school. Now, with a double major in Psychology and Sociology, she's dreaming of helping children live healthier as a family counselor.

"That class really sealed the decision for me. The professor was giving a talk on sociology, and I wanted to stay in that classroom all day. With Curry's small class sizes, you're part of the discussion and can share your opinions. And as for the campus, I love how I can walk right out of my residence hall and enjoy a stroll through the forest. It reminds me of being home in Vermont."

26 MAJORS. ENDLESS CAREER COMBINATIONS.

At Curry, our unique combination of majors, minors, and concentrations lets you customize your own career path. Each program has specific Learning Outcomes – the goals and objectives that help turn a dream into a career. Passionate about bettering the lives of local youth? Add a minor in Youth Advocacy to our Criminal Justice major. Ready to lead the tech side of the business world? Major in Business Management and add a minor in Management Information Systems. From the fine arts, to the sciences, to healthcare, and plenty of paths to set yourself apart in business, it's all here at Curry.

Elton first chose Curry for its Communication program. Once here, he discovered a love of management and decided to combine his two passions. After completing internships at Dunkin' Brands, he landed his dream job at CVS Health, where he quickly rose to a senior role, helping the company better the lives of its customers.

"Curry's professors are its top resource."

BEYOND THE MAJOR: GAIN MARKETABLE SKILLS THROUGH GENERAL EDUCATION

We recently launched an innovative new approach to General Education. It's as valuable to our students as it is to the employers looking to hire them.

Global knowledge. Effective written and oral communication. Critical thinking. Information literacy. Quantitative reasoning. Intercultural sensitivity. Teamwork. Ethical judgment. These are the skills you'll gain as you complete your General Education requirements. Instead of worrying about how many English or math classes you need, you'll embark on a journey of self-discovery as you gain the skills employers want most.

"The learning outcomes of Gen Ed closely align with skills that employers say they are looking for in new graduates."

DR. CARRIE L. COKELY

Associate Vice President of Academic Affairs

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS:

FIRST-YEAR INQUIRY

Explore real-world issues in a small class, working closely with faculty, and begin the ePortfolio of work you'll build throughout your four years at Curry.

BREADTH

Study the sciences, arts, humanities, and social sciences, as you work to expand your knowledge and refine your reading, writing, and reasoning skills.

INTERNATIONAL/GLOBAL INTERDEPENDENCE

Study abroad, take foreign language courses, or benefit from courses with a global focus, and be ready to succeed in today's global economy.

DIVERSITY

Apply knowledge of processes, systems, and relationships to lend your voice to today's most pressing social and political issues.

ACTIVE LEARNING AND WELLNESS

Take your education beyond the classroom, fulfilling these requirements through internships, athletics, and even by taking on leadership roles in campus organizations.

JUNIOR-YEAR INQUIRY

This experience brings together everything you've learned. Round out your ePortfolio, together with a small class exploring key topics relevant to your major.

YOUR EPORTFOLIO

One of the greatest benefits of our Gen Ed program is the ePortfolio. Projects, self-reflection, and career goals – they all come together to paint a picture that helps set you apart as you do what you dream.

THE BUSINESS OF BEING SOCIAL

How can you use social media for your company? How can the high-tech world impact your career? These are just a couple of the many questions students explore alongside Dr. Shavindrie “Shavi” Cooray, Associate Professor of Business Management specializing in Management Information Systems (MIS). She helps students understand how to use technology to their advantage in business, whether they’re tweeting, Instagramming, or using open-source software. They also learn how to communicate with everyone from developers to end-users.

“My classes are very interactive. I want everyone to come together, ask questions, and discuss ideas. With the small class sizes at Curry, I have the time to invest in each and every student. I feel like I am making a difference, and that means a lot to me.”

DR. SHAVINDRIE “SHAVI” COORAY

With a passion for pathology, Kenley's dream is to lead researchers to cures. He transferred to Curry for the chance to work side by side with professors and pursue independent research. After graduation, he was accepted to the Harvard University Research Scholar Initiative post-baccalaureate program. He also studied neurobiology and was a neuroscience researcher at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. He has been featured on Boston25 News and is now enrolled in the University of Massachusetts Medical School's joint MD-PhD program.

“Initially, I planned to attend medical school. But in speaking with my professors and developing relationships with them, they told me about an MD-PhD, where you can pursue a dual medical doctorate and a research doctorate. That was something I’d never heard of, which put me on the path to finding exactly what I want to do.”

PAL PROGRAM FOR ADVANCEMENT OF LEARNING

We are incredibly proud of PAL, our internationally recognized Program for Advancement of Learning. Recognized as the country's first program of its kind, celebrating a longstanding tradition of success, PAL provides academically focused assistance to bright, college-able students with specific language-based learning disabilities, executive function disorders, and/or AD/HD.

PAL students represent about 20% of each entering class. They're leaders at Curry, with many joining our Honors Program and leading the way in the arts, in athletics, and in the classroom. They take on a wide range of careers after Curry and many have gone on to grad school, law school, or doctoral programs.

Ivan traveled from Puerto Rico to pursue his dream. After hearing about PAL and visiting campus in high school, he knew he had found his fit at Curry. He majored in Information Technology and is turning his love for video games into a career in cybersecurity.

A true leader on campus, Ivan became president of the Curry Tech Club and added a minor in Business Management to prepare for future leadership opportunities. Thanks to the solid foundation he gained at Curry, Ivan felt prepared to pursue a master's degree.

▶ CONNECTIONS

CONNECT TO A WORLD OF OPPORTUNITY.

At Curry, it's all about connections. Connections with professors, with internships, and with the world outside our campus.

One day you may be partnering with a professor on a research project, and the next semester, you might be headed to LA to work behind the scenes at a Hollywood movie studio.

Here, you have endless ways to connect to your dream.

INTERNSHIPS AT BOSTON'S TOP COMPANIES

Our students complete as many as four internships throughout their college careers. Here, if you can dream it, you really can do it.

VISIT

It's more than just a tour. After all, if you're spending four years here, you want to be sure it feels like home.

We have so many ways to visit – Open Houses, Explore Curry Days in the spring, Junior and Senior Visit Days, Discover Curry Days in the summer, Future Student Receptions by major – because we want your visit to be all about you.

WHY VISIT?

Depending on the visit opportunity you choose, you can:

- ▶ Talk with students, faculty, coaches, and staff
- ▶ Meet with Financial Aid and Residence Life
- ▶ Take part in events and truly become a part of campus
- ▶ Dream bigger, together

IT'S SO EASY TO VISIT.
AND IT MAKES THE DECISION
EASY, TOO.

Live close to Boston? We're just a short drive from the city (and just seven miles from downtown).

Coming from afar? We'll be happy to recommend local hotels – and things to do if you want to explore the best of Boston or see New England while you're here. We'll make your trip even more meaningful.

Monica was accepted to all nine schools on her list, but it was Curry that really stood out. Her talent for teaching led her to become a peer tutor on campus and help guide fellow students to success. She gained plenty of practical experience right here on campus at the Curry Early Childhood Center, where she worked as an assistant teacher. Always involved on campus, Monica also became president of our Education Club in her sophomore year. Today, she is living her dream as a 4th grade teacher.

“I loved everything about Curry, including the location and the sense of community I got when I stepped on campus. It just felt like it would be easy to fit right in.”
